RTO Provider Number 91585

CPP41419 - Certificate IV in Real Estate Practice

(Release 3)

There are no pre-requisite units required to undertake this qualification, however, age restrictions and work experience requirements do apply for the application of a Real Estate Licence (Class 2 Agent) with NSW Fair Trading. There are no work placement requirements for this qualification.

The qualification consists of eighteen (18) units of competency comprising of five (5) core and nineteen (13) elective units of competency.

Unique Training Providers has developed a training program to suit both Salespeople and Property Managers with the option to choose 3 elective units that focus on the Auctioneering units or Property Management units as part of your training.

The qualification is nationally recognised and can only be delivered by a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) that complies with the governing standards of quality control and quality training and assessment under the Australian Qualifactions Framework

Upon successful completion of the course assessments you will be awarded the Qualification:

CPP41419 - Certificate IV in Real Estate Practice

Participants who exit the training program without completing all required units of competency will be issued with a Statement of Attainment for those units in which they have demonstrated competency.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process which assesses the individual's non-accredited training and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning or competency outcomes. Additional information on our RPL process is available from the Unique Training Providers office, your Trainer/Assessor or our website.

Prior to enrolment, a pre-assessment form will be completed by each participant. This form identifies potential recognition of prior learning opportunities as well as areas where further training is required.

Language Literacy and Numeracy requirements

To ensure that our learners have every opportunity to succeed in their career we have included as part of our enrolment process a Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment. This will be assessed prior to acceptance into any of our courses.

Students who fail to attain a sufficient standard will have their course fees refunded and referred to an appropriate service for Language, Literacy and Numeracy support.

Special Needs

During the enrolment process, we ask that you identify any special needs you may have. This can be in relation to language, literacy and numeracy, physical access or any other issue. We will make every effort to accommodate individual student needs, however, we reserve the right to refuse enrolment where we feel that the student cannot meet training requirements to achieve a successful outcome.

Email & Phone support is also available for all students throughout their training.

Student requirements

Students are required to

- Attend all scheduled classroom / livestream sessions
- Complete and submit all assessments within required timeframes
- Inform our office if you require an extension of your course completion date

Course Duration

Our training courses have been developed in accordance with AQF guidelines regarding the volume of learning. The volume of learning identifies the duration of all activities required to achieve the learning outcomes of the course including all teaching and learning activities such as Classroom, online or self-paced study, assessments, learning activities, projects, prescribed reading, research, workplace experience.

Volume of learning is calculated as follows:

Nominal (supervised) hours + unsupervised hours = volume of learning

Nominal (supervised) hours represent the supervised structured learning and assessment activity.

Unsupervised hours represent activities that are not supervised by a trainer or assessor.

Conversion of AQF volume of learning to hours for a Certificate IV qualification would be:

Months / Years	Hours
6 months – 2 years	600 – 2400 hours

Please note that students with industry experience in a specific learning area may reduce the number of hours required for them to complete the qualification.

Outcomes

At the successful completion of the training course, you will have achieved a CPP41419 Certificate IV in Real Estate Practice which is the qualification required to apply for your Class 2 Agents Licence with NSW Fair Trading. As a licensed agent you can take greater responsibility in the marketing, management and sale of property.

In order to apply for your Class 2 Agents Licence with NSW Fair Trading, you must meet the following criteria:

- be 18 years or over
- have the appropriate education qualifications
- held a certificate as an Assistant Agent for 12 months
- complete the work experience requirements
- not be a disqualified person
- be a fit and proper person
- Has paid the relevant contribution to the Property Services Compensation Fund.

The cost of this application is NOT included in your course fees.

NSW Fair Trading conducts a police check and will look for any conviction you may have over the last 10 years. Having a conviction does not necessarily disqualify you, it just depends what the conviction was for. If you have a past conviction, we advise that you contact NSW Fair Trading prior to enrolling in this course.

We will provide you with details of how to apply for your Licence when we issue your Qualification

Pathways

Once you have completed the Certificate IV in Real Estate Practice and have applied for your Class 2 Agent's Licence, you can progress to a Class 1 Licence with NSW Fair Trading which would allow you to become a Licensee in Charge or run your own business. You must have at least 2 years work experience as a Class 2 Agent, complete further work experience requirements and complete a Diploma of Property.
